Biography: Councilman Chris Grant

A member of the Walhalla community for 29 years and a city resident since 2012, Councilman Chris Grant has deep roots in the place he proudly calls home. He is a 1996 graduate of Seneca High School and spent more than a decade serving the community as a Police Lieutenant, working to protect Walhalla's streets and residents. Today, he continues serving the public as the owner and operator of Palmetto Fade Company Barbershop, located in the heart of downtown Walhalla.

Chris and his wife, Melissa, have been married for 28 years and are the proud parents of two children, Laura Beth and Ryan. Both have dedicated their careers to education and to working with children with special needs. Their family also includes two dogs, Gus and Jack.

Committed to giving back to the "village" that helped raise his family, Councilman Grant ran for City Council to help strengthen trust, accountability, and community connection in local government. He believes city employees are the backbone of Walhalla and is committed to ensuring they are supported and valued.

Councilman Grant welcomes conversation and encourages residents to stop by Palmetto Fade Company at 118 S. Catherine Street or call him at (864) 973-3139 before 8:00 p.m.
