Biography: Councilman Josh Holliday

Josh Holliday is a devoted advocate for the City of Walhalla. A 1997 graduate of Walhalla High School, he went on to earn his bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from the College of Charleston in 2002. He later completed a master's degree in educational leadership from the University of Kentucky, further strengthening his commitment to service, leadership, and community development.

Mr. Holliday has proudly served on the Walhalla City Council from 2011 to 2019 and 2024-present, working collaboratively to support responsible growth, community improvement, and a strong quality of life for all residents. His experience in public service, combined with a career in education, has given him a people-first perspective grounded in listening, problem-solving, and long-term planning.

He and his wife, Sally, are raising their two sons, Silas and Jude, in the community they are proud to call home. Deeply rooted in Walhalla, Mr. Holliday has a genuine love for the city and a strong desire to see it thrive for future generations.
